

Stand Up for Journalism

The Garden State Scholastic Press Association congratulates its 2009 Distinguished Newspapers and Yearbooks, announced at Fall Student Press Day on October 26 at Rutgers University.

Newspapers

Distinguished Journalism Award

Division A

First Place – Cherry Hill High School East, The Eastside Staff

Second Place – Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School, The Fanscotian Staff

Third Place – South Brunswick High School, The Viking Vibe Staff

Division B

First Place – Northern Highlands Regional High School, The Highland Fling Staff

Second Place – Bergenfield High School, The Bear Facts Staff

Third Place – Warren Hills Regional High School, The Streak Staff

Division C

First Place – Communications High School, The Inkblot Staff

First Place – Hasbrouck Heights High School, The Pilot's Log Staff

Second Place – James Caldwell High School, The Caldron Staff

Third Place – Oratory Prep School, The Omega Staff

Yearbooks

All New Jersey Platinum

Bishop George Ahr High School, Insight Staff

Madison High School, Alembic Staff

Monsignor Donovan High School, Exemplar Staff

North Brunswick Township High School, Dedalus Staff

First Place Gold

Cinnaminson High School, Buccaneer Staff

Jackson Liberty High School, The Pride Staff

Scotch Plains-Fanwood High School, Culmen Staff

Teaneck High School, HiWay Staff

Second Place Silver

Delaware Valley Regional High School, The Valley Staff

Holy Cross High School, The Lance Staff

John F. Kennedy High School, The Knight Staff

Old Bridge High School, Excalibur Staff

Summit High School, The Top Staff

Third Place Bronze

Monroe Township High School, Reflections Staff

Rancocas Township Regional High School, Red Oak Staff

South Brunswick High School, Valhalla Staff

Wayne Hills High School, Heritage Staff