

Yearbook Contest 2009

Yearbook: you have sweated over it all year long...you know it is a work of art, a journalistic masterpiece, and a labor of love. Now let the rest of the world know how good it is!

The Garden State Scholastic Press Association will hold its annual award competition this summer. We will award first, second, and third place designations as well as All-New Jersey, the highest honor for yearbooks from our organization.

This could be your first step in helping get recognition from parents, the Board of Education, and your community at large by garnering awards for your publication. An experienced judge from out of state will mark a thorough critique form and give you points in each category. Explanations and the critique will accompany each returned entry. Judges will be encouraged to write in your book pointing out specific kudos and constructive criticisms.

If you are ready to take the challenge of competition, fill out the application form in this packet, or download the form from our Web site at: www.gsspa.org.

Send the completed form, a copy of your yearbook, and a check for $70 (payable to the GSSPA) to the address below.

If you would like your yearbook returned to you, please include an additional $15 fee.

You must be a GSSPA member to enter the contest. If you are not a member, download the membership form from our Web site and join today!
